Scotland's 'largest' wedding showcase is set to return to Glasgow early next year.

The Scottish Wedding Show is coming to Glasgow's SEC on February 18 and 19, to help couples from across Scotland plan an 'unforgettable' wedding.

From bridal gowns and flower arrangements to musical entertainment and venue décor, the event will host over 220 of the UK's leading wedding suppliers under one roof.

Glasgow Times:

The famous wedding event will feature a range of activities, including a live catwalk show to display the latest trends in wedding dresses, groomsware, and more, a live band showcase, and the field of dreams section which will provide ideas for those wanting outdoor ceremonies.

Guests will also be served plenty of wedding planning tips and inspiration at Let's Talk Tying the Knot, which features talks and Q&As to allow brides and grooms-to-be to ask industry experts questions about all aspects of their big day.

Glasgow Times:

Tsitsi Lynn Makuni, show manager, said: "Following the success of our recent 20th anniversary show in October, we're thrilled to be coming back to the SEC, Glasgow for what's set to be an incredible event.

"Our exhibitors always amaze us with new and innovative wedding trends, and we can't wait to welcome them back to show happy couples how they can make their big day special.

"From wedding transport that ranges from a horse and carriage to a big red bus, to live artists that can bring your nuptials to life, to wedding décor specialists who can bring your vision to life, there's no better place to get inspired to say, 'I do'."
