Glasgow falls in love with wedding show

FUTURE brides and grooms – not to mention mothers of the bride and groom, bridesmaids and guests – converged on the Scottish Wedding Show at the SEC, Glasgow yesterday for all things romantic.

Models took to the catwalk to showcase the latest bridal fashions while stands featuring over 200 suppliers of wedding services displayed the latest trends.

For those planning to opt out of a traditional wedding and get married in the great outdoors, a quirky Field of Dreams area provided inspiration for something a little different to stage on the big day.

The event also featured a live band showcase and cocktail bar for those making a day of it.
