

Glasgow SEC Scottish Wedding Show features stunning bridal gowns

The Scottish Wedding Show kicked off at the SEC in Glasgow featuring stunning bridal gowns.

Thousands of couples and their wedding parties attended the event as they got set to say "I do".

They enjoyed more than 220 of Scotland's top wedding suppliers who showcased everything couples need for their big day.

Model Gillian Cheung with a creation by Ronald Joyce from The Wedding Planner Bridal Shop in Helensburgh (Image: Colin Mearns)

This included a spectacular catwalk which debuted a variety of breathtaking wedding dresses.

Model Gillian Cheung looked incredible wearing a creation by Ronald Joyce from The Wedding Planner Bridal Shop in Helensburgh.

The event had an incredible fashion show (Image: Colin Mearns)

The event was a success (Image: Colin Mearns)

Before the event, Tsitsi Lynn Makuni, show manager, said: "We are gearing up for an exciting weekend filled with love as couples and their wedding parties and friends join us to prepare for their happy occasion.

"We've got some fabulous exhibitors ready to inspire and delight brides and grooms - they'll find everything they need right here this weekend."